BIGGER THAN XMAS

THAT'S THE BRIEF, THE VISION, THE BAR THAT'S BEEN SET AND THE GLASS THAT'S BEEN RAISED FOR GOOD BEER WEEK 2016. YOU REMEMBER THAT FEELING, THE ANXIOUS ANTICIPATION, THE TINGLING EXCITEMENT, THE GENEROSITY AND THE INDULGENCE OF FEASTING, DRINKING AND LAUGHING, ALL-DAY WITH LOVED ONES. YOU MIGHT ASK YOURSELF "WHATS BIGGER THAN XMAS?!" FLICK THROUGH THIS PROGRAM AND YOU'LL SEE WHAT I MEAN.

MIRO BELLINI
CO-FOUNDER GOOD BEER WEEK,
GOOD BEER AMBASSADOR

We don't mean to offend, or take anything away from the big jolly fella. In this, the 6th festival of ours, we knew we had to 'think bigger' and meet the hearts, minds and palates of our industry peers and our loyal festival punters. You've got such big expectations you see.

Let's start with our local brewing scene, how proud we are. 2015 starts and there were roughly 250 Australian brewing companies (a far cry from the 11 we had in 1990). By November there were 300. That is so much tasty, tasty beer. You'll see this in the kaleidoscopic range awaiting you this program. It's not just interesting beer our palates are crying out for. The olive oil in our pantries is nicer, we care about tasting new gelato and we take photos of the pastries we had with morning tea. Cookbooks and TV shows about dinner parties are in an obscene abundance. We want to explore flavour and understand why and how from our wonderful producers. It's no longer enough to chuck some different beers on tap and call it an event. People want the story, the background, to come away having learned something or tried something entirely new. And your events this year do just that.

And we can't forget the custodians of Good Beer Week, those tasked with delivering these fine beers to you. Our venues are proud of their individuality, and know how to flourish in a festival. That makes Melbourne the perfect location for a beer week of this magnitude. Our world class breweries can stand side by side with world class chefs, butchers and distillers, and make their event something to be remembered for more than just what is poured into the glass.

So with all this in mind, it is my honour to introduce the sixth Good Beer Week program. Our grandest program yet, with the biggest number of beers, the largest involvement of breweries, the widest spread of venues and our highest hopes. It's pretty big.

A MESSAGE FROM THE LORD MAYOR OF MELBOURNE

ROBERT DOYLE
CITY OF MELBOURNE MAYOR

GOOD BEER WEEK MELBOURNE 2016 IS EVIDENCE THAT OUR TASTE FOR A COLDIE HAS EVOLVED OVER THE GENERATIONS AND THE ERA OF ONE VARIETY ON TAP AT THE LOCAL WATERING HOLE IS OVER.

Beer enthusiasts will be spoiled for choice during this festival, with plenty of brews to enjoy.

Beer lovers can whet their whistles at 270 events in 180 venues state wide which will provide a great opportunity to explore our vibrant hospitality industry.

Now in its sixth year, Good Beer Week recognises industry leaders with the world's largest annual beer program.

As well as the regular Brew vs Cru, Mega Dega and Masterclass, this year the Good Beer College will educate drinkers about beer's evolution. Meanwhile, the Cryer Malt Trade Hub will improve the brewery and hospitality industries' knowledge, helping Melbourne become the world's best trained city for beer serving and presentation.

I am pleased to welcome local, interstate and international brewers and beer lovers to Melbourne. Whether you're a consumer or an industry insider, enjoy a week celebrating the best that Melbourne and the world can brew for you.

Cheers and drink responsibly!

MARK O'SULLIVAN
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, RASV

THE ROYAL AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY OF VICTORIA (RASV) IS DELIGHTED TO BE A FESTIVAL SUPPORTER OF GOOD BEER WEEK IN 2016.

Good Beer Week coincides with the judging of the Australian International Beer Awards (AIBA) conducted annually by RASV, recognising the best local and international brews across a diverse range of styles

In its 24th year, the AIBA, is the largest annual beer competition in the world judging packaged and draught beer, awarding up to 30 champion and major trophies, and receiving over 1700 entries.

Judging for the 24th AIBA takes place in the first few days of Good Beer Week, with an impressive line-up of respected beer experts from across the globe descending on Melbourne to assess the entries.

This year, patrons of Good Beer Week will have the opportunity to try beers awarded the seal of excellence at the AIBA Presentation Dinner and GABS 2016 - Beer | Cider | Food Fest with a number of medal-winning brews on offer.

We congratulate the Good Beer Week team and Australian beer industry on a successful and exciting event in 2016 and encourage you all to try the exceptional AIBA award-winning beers during "the best beer week in the world"- Good Beer Week!

THE HON. JOHN EREN MP
MINISTER FOR TOURISM & MAJOR EVENTS

I AM DELIGHTED TO WELCOME YOU TO GOOD BEER WEEK FOR THE SIXTH EDITION OF ONE OF AUSTRALIA'S BEST LOVED CELEBRATIONS OF INNOVATION, CREATIVITY AND MOST OF ALL, GOOD BEER.

This vibrant festival has quickly become a favourite on Victoria's events calendar, being lauded as "the best beer week in the world" by some, which sits perfectly with our reputation as an events and food capital.

With 270 events taking place across 180 venues throughout Melbourne and regional Victoria, the festival will help to establish Victoria as the microbrewery capital of the country and wider Asia Pacific region, and provide an economic and cultural boost to the state.

Victoria's unrivalled events calendar continues to enhance our city's reputation as the nation's arts, culture, and food and wine capital.

I encourage all visitors from interstate and out of town to enjoy the best that Victoria has on offer and wish you all an enjoyable Good Beer Week experience.

WELCOME TO OUR BIGGEST FESTIVAL YET!

WE'VE HEARD IT SAID MANY TIMES – GOOD BEER WEEK IS LIKE CHRISTMAS FOR BEER LOVERS. NOT JUST BECAUSE THERE ARE SO MANY SPECIAL BEERS AROUND WORTHY OF A PLACE UNDER THE TREE, BUT BECAUSE THE JOY OF THE SEASON IS INFECTIOUS! VENUES ARE BEING DECORATED, THE BEER FAMILY IS GATHERING, EXTENDED RELATIVES (AND BREWERS) ARE IN TOWN FOR THE FESTIVITIES, AND WE ALL EAT TOO MUCH DELICIOUS FOOD!

As we hit our sixth year, the program is heaving with events that are bound to get you into the spirit of the season. Yet again we've upped the ante from previous years, with a massive 270 events at around 180 venues over 10 days. We see every event as an embodiment of what the festival is about – sharing the beer love and celebrating the best the beer world has to offer.

In amongst the mix of venue-hosted events, you will also find in these pages all the info you need on the GABS 2016 - Beer | Cider | Food Fest, the Time Out Melbourne Pub Awards, and the Australian International Beer Awards. Being able to show the best of the industry through events and awards such as these is a privilege that Good Beer Week is proud to have. Working with our partners helps build Good Beer Week into one of the biggest beer celebrations in the world.

As you flip through the pages, you'll see there are five streams to explore: Foodie, Beer Lover, Beer 101, Beer Geek, and Good Times. These streams will help you design your perfect week of merriment, whether you're keen to get up close to some international brewing heavyweights, or want to fill up on every degustation you can fit in.

Beer DeLuxe at Federation Square will play host to the Festival Hub and Good Beer College presented by Little Creatures and Friends, while the good beer industry can delve into educational seminars and events in the Cryer Malt Trade Hub upstairs. Pint of Origin has expanded to an impressive 14 venues, bringing more beer from around Australia and the world into reach.

The venues are great, the breweries are brilliant, but there is one person left to thank. We simply couldn't do it without you – yes you, with the program in your hand – taking an interest in the venues and breweries that make Good Beer Week what it is. Every person who buys a ticket, steps foot in a venue they haven't been to before, or discovers a new favourite brewery helps the good beer community grow even bigger and better.

The beer world is evolving, and so is Good Beer Week. Thanks for joining us for the sixth year of this big little festival. It's our gift to you, but even more so, it's your gift to us.

FOODIE BIGGER THAN HESTON PRESENTED BY SMUDGE EATS

FEAT. MEGA DEGA IV

FEAT. LITTLE CREATURES &
FRIENDS: GOOD BEER COLLEGE

New to beer or just looking to expand your knowledge beyond your chosen tinnie of the teenage years? BEER 101 has got what you need. Presented in conjunction with Little Creatures, this stream is all about showing how much variety can be found in a glass of the cold (or room temperature) stuff. There's nothing Little Creatures and White Rabbit like more than talking about beer – give them half a chance and they'll talk your ear off about hops or barrel aging. That's why Little Creatures and Friends are presenting this year's Good Beer College – a series of free beer sessions designed to give those newer to the beer world the best start possible.

FEATURING PINT OF ORIGIN BUS TOUR PARTS I & II

PoO Bus Tours $180

Various venues

SATURDAY 14 & 21 MAY 11:30am—7pm

The Crafty Pint's pocket of Good Beer Week is a weeklong showcase of the best beers from Australia and the wider world. A dozen of Melbourne's very best beer venues are turning over their taps to beers from the six Aussie states plus New Zealand, Europe, the US and, for the first time, Canada. There are regional showcases in Geelong and Bendigo and, in recognition of the huge number of breweries in Victoria and New South Wales, two venues representing each: one focusing on Metro breweries, the other on regionals.

Look out for another PoO comp run with live taplist app Now Tapped. If you're a Crafty Cabal member, look out for PoO specials too. And, if you fancy the ultimate PoO experience, then join The Crafty Pint and Ben's Brew Tours. They're visiting 12 inner Melbourne Pint of Origin venues across two tours. Each features six venues, four beers per stop, lunch, door prizes, discounts & surprises.

It's the best way to get the full Pint of Origin experience, meet like-minded beer people, and visit venues you may not have been to before. Crafty Pint founder James Smith will keep you up with the play as you explore the beers from across Australia, while Ben's Brew Tours will ensure you don't have to worry about transport all day!

And, of course, when enjoying PoO, don't forget to hashtag #PoO16.

FESTIVAL HUB

PRESENTED BY

Fed Square, Flinders St, Melbourne
WWW.BEERDELUXE.COM.AU

AFTER A BRILLIANT FIRST YEAR HOSTING THE FESTIVAL HUB IN 2015, OUR FRIENDS AT BEER DELUXE, FEDERATION SQUARE ONCE AGAIN BECOME THE HOME OF GOOD BEER WEEK FOR 2016.

OPENING NIGHT PARTY FRIDAY 13 MAY, 6PM, FREE ENTRY

Come celebrate the beginning of Good Beer Week at the Festival Hub! Stellar tap list including the official Festival Beers, special guests from local and international breweries, and amazing DJ's - it's the perfect start to your Good Beer Week!

The central Melbourne location, combined with two beer gardens and dozens of taps, makes Beer DeLuxe the perfect centrepiece for the banquet that is Good Beer Week.

The Festival Hub will be your place to go if you're looking for a beer list reflecting the best of the fest, beer tastings, learning your basics as Little Creatures and Friends present Good Beer College, or simply a great starting point to your wider beer adventures. Stop in for a pint before your next event, or make an afternoon of it with a few friends in the beer garden.

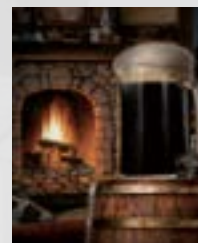

Starting with the Opening Night Party on Friday, 13 May, Beer DeLuxe will be pouring incredible beers across its taps, including our festival beer partners - Feral Brewing Co, Little Creatures, Boatrockers Brewing Co and Bridge Road Brewers.

Need any more reasons to pay the Hub a visit? We didn't think so!

TRADE HUB

UPSTAIRS AT ★ BeerDeLuxe

It takes more than good ingredients to help grow an industry, you also need an understanding of the challenges of the market and the changing conditions of business. After all, craft beer is evolving and it is time we did too.

With that need to evolve in mind, Cryer Malt is hosting the Cryer Malt Trade Hub once again during Good Beer Week 2016, upstairs at the Festival Hub at Beer DeLuxe. Sessions are spread across the nine days of the festival, with a mix of trade talks and industry events.

The Trade Hub will provide the good beer industry with a place to discuss the topics and issues facing businesses today, through seminars, talks and events.

BREWS NEWS Q & A
WEDNESDAY 18 MAY, 10AM-5PM, $40 INC. LUNCH

Beer is a conversation and Australian Brews News is at the forefront of that discussion.

Join us for a series of thought-provoking discussion panels looking at the important issues in the beer world. These interactive discussions will tackle some of the big - but often unspoken - issues affecting Australian brewers.

Discussions will look at the secret life of tap beer. It's great to get beer on tap but once you get on tap, how do you ensure the quality of what is being poured is the same quality that is leaving your brewery? We will be looking at some of the practices being used in bars that may be undermining the quality of your beer and what can be done to ensure your customers get the best experience. Panelists will include Ed Bodey, Stone & Wood's Draught Beer Expert, Brad Murray, General Manager, Micromatic; and Corey Crooks, Publican The Grain Store Newcastle.

We will look at the role of science and technology in the brewhouse. Craft beer is seen as being about the art of brewing, but consistency and quality rely on cold hard science. We will be looking at the role of science and technology in the brewhouse, what brewers should be measuring as part of their quality program and what is available to help them do that. The panel will feature brewers such as Feral's Brendan Varis, 4 Pines' Chris Willcock and experts from the fields of quality control and brewhouse technology.

Finally, have a beer and watch the Brew Q&A during which our opinionated experts will deal with questions from the floor, such as "Can we just stop calling it 'craft'?", "Are cans all they are cracked up to be?" and "Why are we all so sour these days...?"

HOME BREW 101 SYMPOSIUM
SATURDAY MAY 21, 10AM-3PM, $30

Learning your Pale Malt from your Ale Malt? Your Cascade from your Citra? Join your fellow homebrew peers from Grain and Grape, ANHC and others for this five-part seminar and question session that promises to cover everything from malt to all grain brewing. Lunch and beers will be provided.

CRYER MALT AND HPA SMASH CHALLENGE
SATURDAY MAY 21, 4PM-5:30PM, FREE ENTRY

Joining a homebrew club is arguably the simplest and most rewarding way to advance your hobby and make new friends which share your passion. Meet and greet Victorian homebrew clubs and sample their wares while they vie for your membership and your vote!

Each club will present a beer brewed with just one malt and one hop known as a SMASH (Single Malt and Single Hop) beer. This is also a great opportunity to learn more about varietal specific hop character, and the influence of base malt on beer colour, flavour and aroma.

Proudly sponsored by Cryer Malt and Hop Products Australia.

ROXY BOUBIS

VENUE MANAGER AT JUNCTION BEER HALL & WINE ROOM

1. What excites you about good beer?

Sharing good beers with good friends is what makes me most excited about the industry - that it's full of so many great people!

2. Fondest memory of Good Beer Week?

Pairing my two favourite things (beer and chocolate) in the first Good Beer Week and seeing that other people were also interested in it, and hosting a Women of Beer High Tea and having a sold out session of ladies into beer.

3. What was your epiphany beer, and why?

I never drank beer until working under Clodagh Harris, who made me try beers until I finally found one that spoke to me - Little Creatures Pale Ale. From there I was hooked and it didn't take long for me to discover porters and black ales, which have been my go to styles ever since.

4. Best advice for a Good Beer Week newbie?

Download Uber, eat food, and don't plan things early the next morning. Visit as many venues as possible, even if not for their event - they will still have good beer on tap!

GABS 2016 BEER, CIDER & FOOD FEST

Royal Exhibition Building
9 Nicholson St Carlton

Tickets start from $30.60+BF

Recognised as one of the top 20 beer festivals in the world by The Beer Connoisseur magazine (USA), GABS 2016 - Beer, Cider & Food Fest brings you a hall full of beery goodness, with 120 'Festival Beers' brewed specifically for the event, brewery and cider stands, food vendors, education sessions, entertainment, and even a giant indoor Ferris wheel.

You can buy either just your ticket, or wrap $20 worth of tokens right in with the purchase price. Tickets are $36/$56 (including tokens) by presale, or $42/$62 (including tokens) on the door.

But for best value, book for five friends or more to get at least 10% off the entry price! Beer Buddy passes for 5-9 friends can be bought for $52.40 presale each, including $20 worth of tokens. Or to really get saving, purchase for ten friends or more at a cost of just $50.60 per person!

And if you really want to make the most of GABS, buy a season pass to all five sessions, including $20 worth of tokens, for $110!

Whichever way you do it, GABS is the perfect highlight to a week chock full of good beer.

GABS began as a mini-festival at The Local Taphouse beer bars in 2011, the same year Good Beer Week began. In just five years, it's grown to become the premier beer festival of its kind and, according to The Beer Connoisseur magazine in the US, one of the best in the world. Expected to attract more than 30,000 people this year, GABS 2016 will kick off at Melbourne's Royal Exhibition Building as part of GBW before travelling to Sydney and then, for the first time, to Auckland.

Run by the guys behind The Local Taphouses and Stomping Ground Brewing Co, GABS is a proudly independent festival that celebrates innovation, education and the appreciation of craft beer, cider and food. While the 120 'Festival Beers' brewed especially for the event by the best breweries in Australia and New Zealand are considered the key attraction by many, there's an abundance of highlights that make GABS a unique and fun experience.

More than 400 beers and ciders are showcased from around 180 breweries and cideries, dozens of exhibitor stands in the Dan Murphy's Marketplace allow you to meet the makers, and outstanding food vendors in the James Squire Food Market provide delicious dishes to enjoy them with.

Educational seminars at the Steel 'Food & Drink Experience' and The Local Taphouse Craft College allow you to delve deeper, while roving musicians, Cirque de GABS, live entertainment, fun activities and much more mean there is something for everyone.

So organise a group of beer buddies, buy your tickets, raise a Coopers Festival Glass and toast GABS 2016! Get in early to avoid disappointment, as sessions sold out last year.

Some exciting additions this year:

- More ciders than ever before including 'Festival Ciders' made especially for GABS by some of the leading cideries in Australia.
- The first ever GABS Festival Beer Variety Six Pack - sold exclusively at GABS and Dan Murphy's.
- Cricketer's Arms' brilliantly interactive bar overlooking the festival hall.
- Many beers can now be ordered at the event and delivered to your door by Dan Murphy's.
- Australian Beer Co's Yenda Wheel of Beer, an 18 metre Ferris wheel giving a great view of the festival and the first ever installed in the Royal Exhibition Building, will help fundraise for MND, Brewmanity's charity.
- The GABS 'Feral Barrel Experiment' will showcase the same beer from Feral Brewing aged in seven different barrels previously home to the likes of wine, sherry, bourbon, whisky and tequila.

GBW PRESENTS: BREW VS CRU VUE DE MONDE RIALTO LVL 55 RIALTO, 525 COLLINS ST

LUNCH

Into its third year, the Brew vs Cru dinner pitches beer against vine, brew against wine, in the ultimate battle for supremacy.

Brew vs Cru III puts Steve Wagner, co-founder of San Diego's Stone Brewing Company, in the corner for beer, while Mac Forbes, owner of Mac Forbes Wines in Healesville, steps up for wine.

As Stone's co-founder, president, and original brewmaster, Steve Wagner is the man behind the recipes for Stone classics including the original Stone IPA, Pale Ale, Old Guardian Barley Wine, and the one and only Arrogant Bastard Ale.

But who of these two industry innovators will lead their team to victory? There is only one way to find out – taste your way through four courses of delectable dishes from Melbourne's Vue de Monde at the top of the Rialto Tower, and decide for yourself whether wine or beer is the winner on the day.

KEEP HEARING THAT GOOD BEER IS BIGGER THAN JUST LAGER? WANT TO FIND SOMETHING TASTY TO PUT IN THAT BEER GLASS YOU GOT FOR XMAS? OR PERHAPS YOU'RE JUST KEEN TO TAKE THE NEXT STEP IN YOUR BEER JOURNEY?

Little Creatures and friends will take you through that first learning curve at Good Beer College at the Festival Hub. Good Beer College peels back the mystery of beer, leading you through the importance of freshness, the impact of ingredients like malt, what techniques such as barrel aging can achieve, and the background of styles such as the IPA.

These entertaining and info-packed sessions are perfect if you're just dipping your toes into the beer world, or if you and a few mates are keen to learn more about a particular element of beer tasting.

As well as presenters from Little Creatures, local and international guest speakers will showcase the beauty of beer and show you how to unlock your tastebuds when your get your lips around your next glass.

Covering off the basics of brewing and beer, Good Beer College is here to prove that beer has moved up in the world, and now it really is bigger than lager!

Sessions are free, but must register at www.goodbeerweek.com.au. Check the website for guest speakers.

WARREN PAWSEY

HEAD BREWER AT LITTLE CREATURES

1. What excites you about good beer?

The increased level of awareness, energy and excitement as we celebrate beer.

2. Fondest memory of Good Beer Week?

For me, Good Beer Week starts with AIBA judging which is a bit of preloading before the GBW event; tasting so many different beers but not knowing who made them.

3. What was your epiphany beer, and why?

My entire first beer trip in Europe. I relied solely on Michael Jackson's Pocket Guide to Beer – yes, a book! I visited Germany, Belgium, Netherlands and the UK. So many fantastic beers.

4. Best advice for a Good Beer Week newbie?

If you meet a brewer, resist the temptation to ask them "what's your favourite beer?". Please don't comment on their beard, and there is no need to "rock star" them.

Boatrocker Barrel Room $240*

34 Macbeth St Braeside

SUNDAY 15 MAY
9am—4pm

There's aging a beer, and then there's mastering the barrel aging process. Three breweries with a focus on exploring the power of the barrel come together to blend a one off beer never to be seen again.

Matt Houghton of Boatrocker Brewing Co. hosts Drew Bombard from New York's Brooklyn Brewery and Soren Erikson of 8 Wired (NZ) for a barrel ageing masterclass not to be missed. The three brewers will extol the virtues of the barrel and discuss their own barrel programs while blending a beer to be aged in a Starward Whisky (AUS) barrel – the same barrels used for Boatrocker's well-loved Ramjet.

The full-day masterclass will include a light breakfast and 4-course lunch from foodie favourite Merricote, matched with three beers and a whisky to settle your palate.

The Good Beer Week masterclass is a highlight of the program every year, and will be no different for 2016.

MARK WAGHORNE

TEMPLE BREWING COMPANY SALES REP

What excites you about good beer?

Good beer in Australia is now an endless supply of new and wonderful flavours and styles. It excites me that I can walk into any good retailer and find something I haven't tried before.

Fondest memory of Good Beer Week?

It would be at the AIBA dinner last year when I managed to fall off my chair twice! Steve Finney from Feral was behind me and I'm pretty sure he kept pulling my chair out.

What was your epiphany beer, and why?

I would have to say Cascade Pale Ale about 21 years ago. Most of my mates were still smashing Carlton Cold, but I remember this beer just having more flavour and body.

Best advice for a Good Beer Week newbie?

Coconut water and Nurofen are good friends to have. Make sure you book early for your favourite events, then build the rest of your week around that. And you must finish with GABS!

FRIDAY 13 MAY 6pm—Late

Much like beer needs water, a festival needs an opening party! Join us at the Festival Hub as the sixth Good Beer Week gets underway, for an evening of great beer, DJs and plenty of good times.

Kicking off on the evening of Friday 13th, the Opening Party is sure to be full of good vibes, as special guests and plenty of Australian and international brewers get together to toast the start of the “best beer week in the world”!

Admission is free, and the beer list is extra special, so make sure you get yourself to Beer DeLuxe nice and early to help Good Beer Week celebrate its sixth birthday. And what a birthday it's going to be!

For some additional fun and to bring the Xmas cheer, we are inviting you to download the pattern from goodbeerweek.com.au to make your own Good Beer Week Xmas jumper. Anyone who attends the launch party wearing your creation will have access to the VIP bar. Get knitting!

GRAHAM FRIZZELL

BEER BLOGGER AND CRAFTY PINT CONTRIBUTOR

What excites you about good beer?

The more I learn about every aspect of good beer - from grain to glass - the less I know. This is incredibly exciting because the voyage of discovery really is endless.

Fondest memory of Good Beer Week?

Volunteering at GABS 2015. I was nervous about how being vision impaired might prevent me from lending a helping hand, but it wasn't long before my fear was allayed. I recommend volunteering to anyone!

What was your epiphany beer, and why?

My first ever Coopers stout, enjoyed on my 18th Birthday. 'Twas a baptism of fire - at first overwhelming, but I knew immediately I wanted more of the black stuff. My love for stout has continued unabated since.

“CHEERS” FROM THE GOOD BEER WEEK TEAM!

It takes a lot of passion, time, support, and hard work from individuals and businesses to make Good Beer Week a reality, and we would like to offer our heartfelt thanks to those who have made Good Beer Week 2016 what it is.

Our deepest gratitude goes to those who support the festival and understand our crazy passion to keep it growing from strength to strength, and for those who have provided financial support that keeps the wheels turning. The festival committee is grateful to everyone who has helped in whatever way they can.

Finally, a massive thanks to YOU for loving good beer and making this festival possible. Whether you are new to good beer, or a supporter from day one, thank you for supporting good beer venues, breweries, and making Good Beer Week the best that it can be. Let's raise our glasses to Melbourne and Victoria for this years program. We say it every year, but it really is the good beer community's best one yet!

Cheers, and see you in May.
